Title IX Pushback is a Healthy Sign

by Linda Harvey

The Title IX changes the Biden administration has declared now in force are meeting with an enormous pushback throughout the country. Within days after the federal Department of Education announced it was proceeding to enshrine gender and sexual anarchy in our nation's schools via radical changes to Title IX, a number of major lawsuits were filed, including those from officials in 15 states. Many have announced their states will not comply.

The suit that the state of Ohio joined with Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana, Virginia and West Virginia asks a federal district court in Kentucky to put an injunction on these Title IX changes because they are unauthorized and make no sense when one considers the original law.

Highlights for Children Goes Queer: Families Betrayed Again

by Linda Harvey

Just in time for sinful "pride" month, we learn that another corporation bites the poisonous rainbow dust. Highlights for Children, which many of us fondly remember for its hidden puzzles in innocent kids' magazines, has advanced well down the road of fearlessly producing tools for grooming.

The foundation blog just posted a jaw-dropping article, 10 Scary Books for Queer Teens to Feel Empowered Reading. The author of this post is Rob Costello, author of We Mostly Come Out At Night: 15 Queer Tales of Monsters, Angels & Other Creatures. Here's his truth-compromising analysis:

"...LGBTQIA+ kids feel under siege by bigoted politicians, school boards, and church leaders."
