Appearance vs. Reality on Good Friday

By Linda Harvey
What's good about Good Friday? One of the many profound surprises of Christian faith is that, what can seem like impossible circumstances can turn out to be rich blessings. The most significant event in human history is one of those seeming catastrophes. It took place starting on Good Friday.

Think about the disciples that day. It wasn't as if Jesus had left them clueless. He told them He was the Messiah. Healing the lame, giving sight to the blind, even raising the dead, clearly demonstrated His power over creation and human life itself. Jesus was God on earth in human form. All this, and He also told them He would die and then rise again. The disciples brushed these warnings aside because none of it lined up with their expectations.

InfOhio Online School Resource Leads Directly to Porn, State Board Told

On Tuesday, April 12th, John Stover, President of Ohio Value Voters, testified to the Ohio State Board of Education that the state tax-funded organization InfOhio is exposing the children in our state to hardcore porn.

What is InfOhio? It is a joint effort between Ohio schools and Ohio's library system to provide online resources for learning (like research and homework). Grade school children have access to this pornography.

Will We Let Radicals Corrupt Children?

Children deserve innocence. And adults have an obligation to protect them from those who would steal this precious period of childhood.

This is our goal at Mission America: to stand up for sound Christian values in America and protect our children.

Mission America thrives on your prayers, your appreciation of our resources, and the contributions so graciously made to this ministry. We continue to expose anti-child activities like this.
