Heads Up, Parma (OH) Parents

From American Family News-- The agreement between the Northeast Ohio Diversity Center and Parma Schools contains a disclaimer stating none of the resources and information shall be given to Parma students. Linda Harvey of Mission: America says that is an attempt to circumvent parents.

"The content of this workshop is so shocking," she relays. "It's clear that most parents would not want teachers to be trained in homosexual activism, but that's essentially what this workshop is all about." [Photo: Students march in Columbus "pride" parade]

The Curious Often Open Doors They Cannot Close

By Debbie DeGroff
"If you want to understand what happens when a child opens this door, please take the time to read this article carefully and follow the links. The books for preschoolers about transgenders are a dime a dozen these days...Most parents are unaware of the books their children are reading or the content of the YouTube videos they are watching. Since this has become the child's secret world, there is no guidance from parents; any questions asked are answered by members of this new-found community."
