GLSEN Donated Books Will Corrupt Children at School

By Linda Harvey
The homosexual group GLSEN, the Gay Lesbian and Straight Education Network, has a new project to send collections of books to as many schools as possible, and these books will not be "Little Women" or "The Little Engine that Could." They call it the "Rainbow Library" but of course, their version of celebrating a rainbow is not a blessing and covenant from God but the opposite—defying God's word by confusing and corrupting impressionable children about gender and homosexuality.

Here's what GLSEN writes about this effort, that, quote, "...Across 28 states and 3,600 schools, GLSEN has sent books that center the voices of queer authors of color and voices of trans and nonbinary authors." GLSEN goes on to say that these books reflect the "feelings and fears" of "queer childhood." Queer childhood???

OH HB 616 Has Strong Potential for Child Protection

Outrage from "LGBTQ" activists, some major newspapers, the teachers' unions, and some large school districts is misdirected at best and child-endangering at worst. Showing their extreme leftwing bias or ignorance of the bill's contents, or both, these folks seem more self-interested than concerned about child welfare. They. Are. Wrong.

Should Children Be Corrupted at School?

Children deserve a time of innocence in childhood and an education free from exploitation and sexualization. Unfortunately that's becoming more and more difficult to find.

This is our goal at Mission America: to stand up for sound Christian values in America and protect our children.

Mission America thrives on your prayers, your appreciation of our resources, and the contributions so graciously made to this ministry. We continue to expose anti-child policies and actions.
