Is the National Education Association Imploding?

Report compiled by various contributors who attended the 2024 NEA-RA

A strike called by the staff of the National Education Association (NEA) cut short the July 4-7, 2024 NEA Representative Assembly (NEA-RA) in Philadelphia, leaving many delegates frustrated and unable to vote on contentious New Business Items (NBI's) that had been scheduled for debate for the RA...

Tension was sure to arise over delegates' conflicting positions on various hot button topics, including:

- Pro-Palestinian NBI's
- Pro-Israel NBI's
- Pro-open borders in the southern USA
- Mandatory COVID vaccinations for all school personnel

President Joe Biden had been scheduled to speak at the RA on Sunday, July 7th. Due to the early adjournment of the RA, Biden's appearance and speech were cancelled.

Without Drag Queens, Will Children Be Illiterate?

by Linda Harvey
Enjoying a little light reading one recent afternoon-- perusing the Southern Poverty Law Center's annual "Year in Hate and Extremism" magazine-- I was stopped cold by one article. And I started laughing hysterically, until I wasn't.

"Fighting Illiteracy, Preserving Democracy: The Power of Drag Story Hour" weaves the preposterous narrative that drag queen story hours have the high and noble purpose of encouraging children to read and solving the illiteracy epidemic.

Maybe He's Not Gay: Another View on Homosexuality

Have you read Linda Harvey's book? It makes a great read for your teens during the summer months. Now in its second edition, Maybe He's Not Gay includes a chapter about the gender confusion epidemic, "Maybe He's Not...a Girl." Don't our children deserve to be well-equipped to stand with principle against this tyrannical agenda? And they should know that there are many ex- homosexuals with compelling testimonies. If your teen has a confused friend, that person has many options, and your child can share this hope with those struggling. Go HERE for more information and ordering options.

Let's continue to honor Jesus our Lord in all we do this summer.
