The Twilight of Pride in America

by Linda Harvey

How long, oh Lord?

The end is not here, but may be coming soon. And that would be a very good thing.

Have you ever prayed for a day to be over, a day where things were going so badly you couldn't wait for night to fall?

That's how "pride" looks to those of us who sigh and cry out, "How long, O Lord?" We see the defilement of God's beautiful rainbow taken captive to the pleasure of rebels. We grieve over the depravity pulling our nation into a sewer. We eagerly yearn for the rainbow to be redeemed in truth.

We are weary of the heartache of witnessing sexual atrocities where children are the spiritual, physical, medical or legal victims. It's gut-wrenching to learn about children being groomed ideologically and then sexually.

Linda Harvey on "Worldview Matters"

David Fiorazo is a nationally respected author and media personality who hosts a great podcast called "Worldview Matters."

He recently featured Linda Harvey on his hour-long show to discuss 'pride' month and the issue of homosexuality in American culture and her latest articles at Mission America.

Maybe He's Not Gay: Another View on Homosexuality

Have you read Linda Harvey's book? It makes a great read for your teens during the summer months. Now in its second edition, Maybe He's Not Gay includes a chapter about the gender confusion epidemic, "Maybe He's Not...a Girl." Don't our children deserve to be well-equipped to stand with principle against this tyrannical agenda? And they should know that there are many ex- homosexuals with compelling testimonies. If your teen has a confused friend, that person has many options, and your child can share this hope with those struggling. Go HERE for more information and ordering options.

Let's continue to honor Jesus our Lord in all we do this summer.
