Title IX Pushback is a Healthy Sign

by Linda Harvey

The Title IX changes the Biden administration has declared now in force are meeting with an enormous pushback throughout the country. Within days after the federal Department of Education announced it was proceeding to enshrine gender and sexual anarchy in our nation's schools via radical changes to Title IX, a number of major lawsuits were filed, including those from officials in 15 states. Many have announced their states will not comply.

The suit that the state of Ohio joined with Kentucky, Tennessee , Indiana, Virginia and West Virginia asks a federal district court in Kentucky to put an injunction on these Title IX changes because they are unauthorized and make no sense when one considers the original law.

Keep Objecting to Homosexuality: 4 Good Reasons

by Linda Harvey

It's curious that, as parents around the country unite against the wicked "trans" agenda directed toward our kids, quite a few are willing to accommodate homosexual identities.

"I have no problem with someone who's gay," I heard one mom say. "It's the gender mutilation that we need to fight."

Agreed, that needs to stop, but doesn't she understand that the fight to normalize "LG" and "B" is where the push for "T" began? They are intimately connected and that's why they stand in unity: "LGBTQ." We must stand in unity too, against behavior that God has called an abomination.
