Teach Children the Truth about November ‘Transgender Awareness’

Linda Harvey

We’re all focused right now on celebrating the election and a hopeful transition into much more sane American life. Yet while that is top of mind, the unrelenting “LGBTQ” agenda continues to move along, putting our children and our society at risk.

Radicals holding a week of so-called “transgender awareness” has morphed into the full month of November. It’s time to make sure your children know the truth instead so they are not deceived.

We have more information on this at Mission America under our School Corruption and Propaganda Calendar, which lists the pro-LGBTQ events that some schools will observe—and pressure students to observe—throughout the year.

Innocent: The Price One Man Paid for Doing What Is Right

by Philip Zodhiates

On December 5th, 2018, an innocent man, who broke no laws, was incarcerated into a U.S. federal prison to begin a three-year prison sentence. His crime? As an act of compassion, he drove a distraught mother from Virginia to New York as she sought refuge for her young daughter whom she had learned was being sexually abused, and the courts refused to protect her daughter in the matter. After the drive, the mother and daughter disappeared, having left the country.

Because the former partner was a lesbian and the mother was a former lesbian (now a converted Christian believer), the story received attention from the LGBTQ movement and was soon being portrayed as a hate crime against a homosexual....
