Ohio Schools Are Saturated with DEI

Linda Harvey

Why do we need a bill like Ohio Senate Bill 113 to prohibit DEI in schools?

Because it's everywhere in Ohio.

Based on anonymous evidence provided to Protect Ohio Children, we have information about 69 school districts in Ohio that have instituted overt CRT /DEI lessons, programs or policies since 2020. Many of these are part of a "social emotional learning" framework. Most of these also promote "LGBTQ" behaviors and identities to students.

And of course, these are the reports POC has received. There is no doubt this is just the tip of the iceberg.

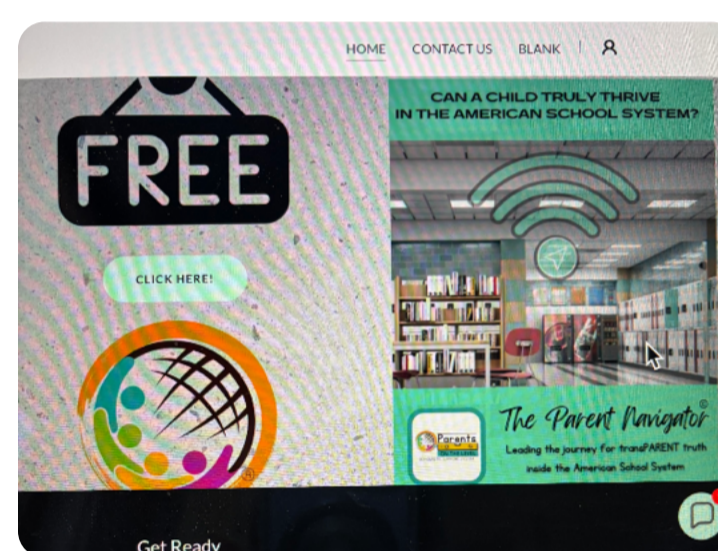

Here are a few examples....

Dayton City Schools adopted a resolution on DEI in 2021 that asserts that there are "racial inequities in all facets of life in the United States, and these racial inequities continue to the present day..."

The Parent Navigator is Now Free!

from Marsha Metzger, Parents on the Level
The 2nd edition of the Parent Navigator, an online guide for parents, is now available from Parents on the Level. Parents, do you know what is taking place in your school-- or what is taking YOUR place in school?

This guide helps parents find the answers you are looking for about your school. For instance, who influences policy? How does the school spend money?

How do unions influence your school? How do obscenity laws impact your school? What are the questions your children will encounter from SEL programs? What about suicide surveillance programs? And much more. Click below for your free online copy!

Good Wins, Evil is Overcome

It's a sad reality that there are forces in our world that will push evil to the limit and all the while believe they are doing "good." We need to face the reality that concepts like "DEI" do not have the best interests of American families in mind.

If you'd like to know how you can help get these programs out of schools, the Child Protection League has a whole page on how to report them Go HERE for more information.
